“ I will miss you grams, and I will always remember you. I'm glad you finally let grandpa talk you into going to see him, and let him lead you to Heaven.

“ I am so glad that Carolyn was able to come to the Claypool Reunion a year ago. We had such a good time talking. She enjoyed her meal so much, said "I am really not supposed to eat this, but I am going to eat it and enjoy it!" I think she enjoyed the day a lot. I hadn't seen her for quite a while. Had she been sick for a while? I'm glad she had all of you, she seemed like she was really a happy person. I should tell you, I am her cousin, in case you don't remember; her Dad was my Mom's brother. We are thinking of you.

“ I was Carolyn's cousin. Her father, Uncle Bill, and my dad, Richard, were brothers. Although we both lived in Anderson, we usually only met at funerals and family reunions. I talked to her at the family reunion two years ago and kinda got caught up on the family. I was truly sorry to hear of her passing. Best wishes in you time of sorrow.

“ Words are inadequate, but know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family in the loss of your mother.

“ A MOMENT AT DAYBREAK by Mary Couch A pale pink rosebud trembles in the summer wind shaking dew from its petals. A monarch’s tiny perch to welcome the coming dawn’s wispy blush across a muted sky. Caught by the gentle breeze, the butterfly floats from its perch to be swallowed by the morning light. She too floats forth to greet the light, we will meet her again around the bend.
