“ We met your father at the nursing home where Bob\'s mom, Isla Lenhart, was a patient. We met Carol there as she walked him through the grounds. We are Todd Eppert\'s parents and knew Carol when she had the gymnastic school. Dorcia, we are Master Gardener\'s and know you through the club. Your father was a delightful man and it\'s obvious where you girls get your charm. Losing a parent is difficult. We find keeping pictures or items around of our parents keeps them close to us at all times. We find we quote our parents often just from those little items. God Bless you both and let Him help you through your grief.

“ Carol and Dorcia, I\'m sorry I didn\'t make it to the funeral. I found out too late. I\'m really sorry about your dad. It doesn\'t seem right that our parents are gone now. I\'m thinking about you.
