“ My heart breaks for you girls, for losing your husband, and your father, at this time. I cried when my Mom told me the news this morning, she saw it in the Anderson paper. She has such fond memories of Darlene and Diane as we were growing up and became friends because of Madison Heights High School. It makes my heart so heavy to know what you are all going thru right now, my Dad past away last summer, it's life changing. But memories have comforted me so much, once you get through this shock, the loss and pain is always there, but it does soften. I'm unable to be with you tonight, at visitation hours, I'm getting married tonight. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers, tonight, tomorrow and always. My Mom, Mary, sends her condolences also. I'm glad I've had a chance to see your Dad in recent years, when Darlene has come to my store in Muncie. I am truly saddened for your loss. Especially at this time of year. Lots of fond memories, Anita Beadle Davidson
