I'm so so sorry you are having to go through such a tragic, heartbreaking loss. Carson had big beautiful eyes, and his soul looked like he was on fire, with so much character. I can't imagine the amount of pain you feel. A young life, lost way too soon. My thoughts and prayers go out to everyone who is struggling and greiving with this loss.

Can I just point out the fact that Highland Middle School did NOT doing anything about suicide prevention and bullying till AFTER its too late a living person took their own life cause no one cared enough to notice or say anything about his pain. I didn't even know carson I would see him in the halls and that was about it but here I am months after the fact still crying about the fact that he had enough pain to not feel the pain.

It is now April 12 2020 and i still have breakdowns thinking about him. It feels life forever ago that we were sitting in the lunchroom watching and laughing to pickle rick on his computer it all feels like a dream and i feel like i could have done something to help but about a month before his Suicide my parents put me in homeschooling. Nothing will be the same...

“ I'm Gracie, one of Carson's best friends we were always around each other laughing, goofing off and just having a good time. one of the funniest things that ever happened was when one morning he caught up to me at breakfast and asked me if i had a hair tie he can borrow i gave him one and then got my breakfast and seen him. He put in his hair and made a ridiculous face, he stuck his tong out past his chin almost and we both started laughing. of coarse i had to get a picture. That was one of the many memories we had together in a short period of time. i cant add the picture because i took it on my phone and i'm typing this on my chrome book. i hope you have a good day.

“ I can still remember his little footsteps running down the hall everyday when I got home from work. Arms out waiting for his hug from daddy and not wanting to let go of me. He had so much love for me and his mother as well as his brothers and sister. Carson was our baby boy and was showered with love. That love will always be in our hearts.

“ FROM THE GREENBERG PLAYWRIGHT COMPETITION at THE ALLEY THEATRE

Friends,

A young playwright who had written a script to submit for this year's competition tragically took his own young life this week.

We are, as we should be, stunned and saddened. Since this has touched us at THE ALLEY THEATRE we would like to honor his memory in some way.

THE ALLEY will consider how best to honor him and give details at a later date, but for now, we ask that you consider supporting this GOFUNDME page in his memory.

His name was Carson Hankins.

He was loved.

His life mattered.
