“ Sorrow is heavy in my heart, but smiles appear with loving memories of Casey. I will always remember her shouting, "Go, Aunt Tray!" and "Piwates!" as a small, 4-year-old retrieved balls for the MHHS volleyball and basketball teams. As well as, snuggles and hugs when I would return to Anderson for a visit, then hugs and nudges as she grew into a young woman. Now, Casey is truly bigger than life. You are much loved and missed. - Aunt Chris & Uncle Keith

“ Donna: We are so sad to hear about Casey. My daughters Paige and Sammi knew her from day camp. We have since moved to Ohio but wanted you to know you are in our thoughts and prayers. I was folding clothes last night and came across a Brownie T-Shirt that my daughter Paige still wears, Casey's signature was on the back of the shirt. She touched so many girl's lives and that shirt will remind us of her and how precious life is. With loving thoughts, Sue

“ I was listening to a song today and wanted to share the lyrics with the family. It is called "In Loving Memory" and it's by a band called Alter Bridge, written by Mark Tremonti. Thanks for all you've done I've missed you for so long I can't believe you're gone You still live in me I feel you in the wind You guide me constantly I never knew what it was to be alone, no Cause you were always there for me You were always there waiting And now I come home and I miss your face so Smiling down on me I close my eyes to see And I know, you're a part of me And it's your song that sets me free I sing it while I feel I can't hold on I sing tonight cause it comforts me I carry the things that remind me of you In loving memory of The one that was so true Your were as kind as you could be And even though you're gone You still mean the world to me I've never knew what it was to be alone, no Cause you were always there for me You were always there waiting But now I come home and it's not the same, no It feels empty and alone I can't believe you're gone And I know, you're a part of me And it's your song that sets me free I sing it while I feel I can't hold on I sing tonight cause it comforts me I'm glad he set you free from sorrow I'll still love you more tomorrow And you?ll be here with me still And what you did you did with feeling And You always found the meaning And you always will And you always will And you always will And I know, you're a part of me And it's your song that sets me free I sing it while I feel I can't hold on I sing tonight cause it comforts me

“ Casey, I love and miss you so much. All of us will miss you and we will sing for you. I know all the girls miss you too. You were such an awesome friend and a great person. I remember how much fun we had at the 4H fair and Camp throughout all the years. I really don't know what I am going to do without you. If it weren't for you and Amy I would probably never think about being a leader someday. You were always smiling and happy. Donna and the rest of Casey's family...I am so sorry. I have you all in my prayers. I love you.
