“ Bruce was more than just my pawpaw he was more like a father he was my Safe Haven through my whole childhood he was more of a father to me then my own father do you love me and all his grandchildren just as much as he did his own children he was always there for us no matter what we have done he never judge us for what we did or done he was always there if we ever needed anything whether it be loaning any of us money or bonding us out of jail I'm grateful the he love me and showed me that love by caring when no one else did through all the abuse I went through he was the only one but never abused me in any way but he stuck up for me and there was no one else I'm grateful that he was my pawpaw and I'm missing just as much today as that day God called him home to be with my grandma after 22 years of missing my grandma and being alone finally they are together and I'm grateful cuz I know they're not suffering no more I hope the day soon will come when I find a man to marry and spend the rest of my life with and have the same kind of love that my grandparents shared hopefully that man that chooses to marry me we'll have as much love for me as my grandfather had for my grandmother I love you Grandma and Grandpa I miss you so much and I'll never forget you. Love your granddaughter that you saved. Billie Jo Goodnight

“ I remember spending time during the summer months at Uncle Bruce's and Aunt Gerry's. Renee and I probably had a little more fun than Mom would have approved of. Renee, Kevin, Trudy, Theone, Kent, and Cheryl...I feel certain there is quite the Euchre game going on. Hopefully Mom and Aunt Gerry will beat Dad and Uncle Bruce at least once. Love to you all. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Brenda

“ Renee, Kevin, Trudy, Theone, Kent, and Cheryl, My sympathies on your father's passing. He was always a kind hearted soul and a lot of fun to have as an uncle. I always admired his skills as a cabinet maker. I will always remember him surprising Mom and Dad with those beautiful cabinets he built for them in our old farm house. Love to all, Joe
