“ His smile was so contagious, the excitement of him opening Christmas gifts and his wit always made us laugh, his heart always so big to help others just because. I loved it when we first met and was instantly like family. We were always there for each other no matter what. I miss us all living together and having the best time even when we had so little. Chad will always be in my heart & our memories will be forever!! I love you 🥰 my sweet adopted son.
