“ I still remember the day you and my mother met. I am thankful for you being an amazing man to her and appreciate everything you have done for my family but most of all being there for Mom and making her a happier woman. You will always have a place in my heart and my families. It's not going to be the same not seeing you with my mom everyday or hearing your voice when you would call, I'm going to really miss you Chad! My prayers go out to your mother Libby and father Kenny.

Kenny & Libby;

*I can not express how much this news of the loss of you precious son has touched my heart. Chad was your baby and I know he was so very special to you, as both boys were. Just know my thoughts are with you, and prayers have been requested for you and your family. I hope the healing will begin soon, for all of you. I know it is so very hard to go through, but with God's help, you will be OK. He has helped me so much. I could not have survived my loss without the Lord's help. If there's anything I can do for you, please let me know. Love you both.

“ The first time I seen Chad was in the hallways of Highland High school. I was a sophomore, Chad a senior. I thought he was so cute. One day while waiting outside the PE doors I invited my sister and a friend over to watch with me as Chad walked by. Lucky for us he had a class across the hall. I told them, "You have to see this guy. He is so cute." Well Chad did walk by, and long story short. Chad and my sister Andrea McBride started dating. Chad was part of our family for the next five years. His smile was infections and lit up the room. The memories of our time spent together will live with me forever.

My Deepest Sympathy

“ So very sorry to hear this shocking and terrible news about Chad. He was a nice of a person that you'd ever want to meet. I enjoyed ever conversation I had with Chad and there were many. He was also a top of the line heating and cooling expert and a general Mr. Fixit who took great pride in his work and it showed. May his family please accept my sincere condolences at this very difficult time.
