“ Have many memories with Charles and Karen when we were pastoring in Indiana seems like so many years ago. The times of being together were always times laughing, talking and of course eating food that the amazing cook served.
Charles was always there like a brother and good friend ALWAYS willing to help no letter what or where. Greatly miss his smile and presences of being there no matter the occasion .
Regards and thoughts with the whole family on their loss of a "great man".

Many years passed since last saw Charles, but recall our school days, working at his Dad's grocery, playing softball in the Allen's front yard in Whitestown. A gentlemen. Class of 53 at WHS always considered him one of us, though we lost track of him long time ago. - Toby McDaniel, Rochester, IL
