“Gampie was the best! I remember him teaching Steph and I lots of jokes to take back home to Michigan. He never took any nonsense, but somehow managed to always make us think it was our idea to behave! What a gem. God is lucky to have him up there. I am so sorry for the sincere loss you must all be feeling. I love you all and wish I could be there with you. Corey

“Jeanne and the Caldwell Family: What a privilege and honor it has been to be one of Mal's caregivers from Home Instead. Mal was a good friend and I will always treasure our discussions each morning with our coffee. May God give you the strength you need each day as you miss him.
