“ Margaret, the service for your father was beautiful...Peggy Sue told me so...you made us so proud of you. Uncle Chuck, as we called him, touched our lives in so many ways. He took care of our Mother Peggy when she had such illness. Susan and Darryl and Carla send their sympathies. I hope Mother and Pammy were there to show him around heaven. Love to all of you. “ Margaret and Ricky, You know how I feel about your dad. And you also know I'll continue to be here for anything else you might need. I am very sorry that we had to get to know each other under these circumstances. You're wonderful people and I hope we can stay in touch. With love, Teresa
