“ My prayers and thoughts are with the family. I remember our family and his family all going camping when we were all younger. He was always smiling and being funny. He always made me laugh. Whenever I was in Indiana to visit my parents (Betty and Wilbur Eiler) Chuck would stop by and visit with my family.

“ My favorite memory of Chuck was the time we shared on the night of Jessica Redington's birth. Chuck & Rosie came back to our house some time after midnight. We had ham & cheese sandwiches and went to bed until we could go back to the hospital in the morning. He was always a sweet, thoughtful man and a good grandfather.
