Charles also enjoyed IU, Purdue and Pacer basketball as well as the Colts.

Charles and Phyllis spent 37 years wintering in Nokomis, Florida where he enjoyed playing golf, tennis, shuffleboard and just relaxing in the warm weather. Charles and Phyllis made many wonderful friends in Florida. One neighbor's son was a professor of economics at Ole Miss and gave a speech to his class about how Charles and another neighbor who opened a grocery store in Columbus, Ohio started their own businesses and made them grow with hard work, dedication and long hours.

“ I am one of the "others" who enjoyed playing golf with Charlie. He was always a joy to be around and always had a hello for me whenever seen elsewhere. My condolences to his loving family.
