

Charles E. Smith

December 9, 1955 - February 8, 2008

Anderson - Charles E. Smith, 52, Anderson, died February 8, 2008 at his residence. He was born December 9, 1955 in Anderson, Indiana, and resided in Anderson. He was a brilliant and accomplished musician who who enjoyed playing music with his friends, mentoring students and always enjoyed engaging in a good philosophical debate. He played guitar with the Bob and Tom Band and recorded countless studio sessions. One of the most influential experiences of his life was being given the opportunity to perform with the Steve Allee Band at the 1997 Montreux Jazz Festival in Montreux, Switzerland. With the encouragement and mentorship of Allee and numerous others, Charlie went on to create and record the CD's "Absolutely" and "On the Double." Charlie always felt grateful for the honor of playing with musicians for whom he had great respect and considered friends. He is survived by his wife Kim Hornocker Smith. Children: Karli Smith and Jordan Smith. Mother: Mary Watson Smith. Sisters: Mollie Plummer husband, Dr. J. William Wright, Dr. Bonnie husband, Dr. Michael Pisano and Maxine Smith. Several nieces and also surviving nephews and many special friends. He was preceded by his Father: Charles Jackson Smith. Services will be Tuesday, February 12, 2008 at 7:00 PM, at Robert D. “ I am so so sorry for the loss of Charlie. I enjoyed his music tremendously, as did many. I did not realize that you were his sistr, Mollie, or that you were his mother Mary. I know you both from Dr. Perez. I enjoyed talking with Charlie who really loved his children. The world has lost a magnificent person and musician. Pat Weaver Wood
