“ My name is Marjorie Franks . I am a retired vocal\general music teacher. My first year of teaching was at Gov. I P Gray School. I was appointed senior class sponsor of Charlie's class. I went with them on their senior trip. I really loved those kids. I was only 4 years older than my students.

Fast forward 50 years to their 50th alumni banquet held in Portland at the new high school. They invited me to attend and I was especially pleased. Since that time, Charlie and I (He always called me Mrs. Franks, even though I asked him to use my first name. He was never comfortable with that.) have been in contact through Facebook nearly every day. Seems we agree on most things and we were continually liking and commenting on each others postings.

I wish I had known he was not well. I would have sent a card. I had become quite fond of him and will miss him very much.

Please extend my condolences to all his family and friends He was quite the gentleman and will be missed.

kindest regards,

Marjorie Franks
