“ Charlotte was the epitome of a strong independent woman. I met her (and Steve and Lori) shortly after they moved to Anderson, probably about 1975. She was funny, smart, understanding, and kind. She was the kind of mom you felt comfortable around. I spent countless hours hanging out with Steve (and Lori) during my teenage years and Charlotte was always welcoming. My love and sympathy goes out to the whole family.

“Charlotte loved our Mom and we always loved her visits. I will never forget her beautiful laugh and the joy she brought Mom and Dad. I can only imagine the reunion with them and all them sharing all their great childhood memories. May she rest in peace and hope that the family can remember the joy she brought to this world. Thinking of you in this very difficult time. I am sure Carroll will honor her well in his remarks. Love, Janice
