Brandy, I am so deeply shocked at this news and send you my heartfelt sympathy. Nothing can replace the love in our hearts between a mother and her son. I know. May the Lord wrap His loving, healing arms around you and give you comfort. May you find peace in Chase's memories and his daughter. In Jesus's name. Amen.

I love you. Beth Brown

When we lost our home to a fire he was the first one to check up on us the smiles on our faces when we were neck to neck to beat eachother to the stop light on grand ave and broadway in his Audi and my hemi hoping to god there wasnt a sherrif at the pizza king he beat me to the house because the sherrif chose to clock me he never let me live it down. So many memories shared together just in time we spent as neighbors
