“ I'm writing part of my senior project and have mentioned Chasity in my jr. high through high school reflections essay. When I first came to Frankton, she was one of the only people I knew I could call a friend. She always saved a seat for me on our bus. Thank you Chasity, for being such a great person, and for being my friend. -

“ Chasity was the only person that I could trust and talk to about anything. She knew that I was pregnant way before I did. She would do anything and everything for any one. She was a really sweet girl. There's not a day that goes by that I don't think about her. I really wish she was here. Her 18th birthday party was really hard for me and her mom. She was like a big sister to me. We were glued together and we still are. Patty and chasity are my best friends. I love them both to pieces. I wish chas was here to see all these lil babies in her family grow up. She loves kids and always talked Bout hAving a bunch of them. I love you chasity and I hope life in heaven is treating you good. I hope your not getting into too much trouble.

“ You are with me everyday, I feel you with every breath, Your thought is with me, With every decision I make. You have been with me until now, And it is hard to face, That you are finally gone, And I will never see you again. Your hands, your touch, your smile, Are things I will never forget, All the love you shared with me, And all the tears and pain you made go away. In our short time together, All the memories we had, Will last in my heart, Those memories I will never forget. Although you have left, Now you walk above, You are always with me, I'm always surrounded by your love. Now you don't have to worry, For your love will be passed on, ?Cause even though you left me, You are Always in my Heart. *dedicated to my good friend, Chasity. You will be missed by all; nonetheless, you were a very special person to a lot of people, including me. We all know that you're in a better place now, one better than you ever were, a place up above... And I can't wait 'til I will be able to see you again. Until then, I'll wait. -Lots of love, The Smith Family Kelaney, Hannah, Melanie, & Kenny.

“ *Patty,
I only had the pleasure of meeting you once but over the last couple of years my wife and I had the pleasure of knowing Chasity. She attended 12:2/Living Water many times. She even stayed the night at our house once or twice. She was fun to be around and was very sweet. I know that sometimes we do understand the purposes and plans of God. Sometimes through our eyes things can even seem as though God has no idea what he is doing, especially in times like these. I want you to know it is NEVER God's perfect plan for child to die. We live in a world ran by a real enemy whom is seeking to devour us. And while he my have won this battle; God will win the war. "And we know that all things work together for good, to those who love God."
Rom. 8:28*
