“ Sweet Chazz, what memories, firsts, milestones, hurdles, & triumphs we had, passed, & jumped over. First i have to say how every morning, monday thru friday, id come in, you always greeted me with that infectious smile, warming my heart. Those gorgeous eyes melting my soul. A huge hug, ugh, the BEST big hugs! They say if you love what you do as your career, you wont ever "work" a day in your life. Well, Chazz was truly such a joy to care for, i looked forward to what all we were going to explore that day, what new adventure i could create for him. My favorite memory of these expeditions is the day we loaded up in his stroller, walked back in the trail of woods behind uncle nicks place. His intenseness listening to the birds, squirrels, focusing on the rays of sunshine peering through leaves of the trees. So curious! We got close to the stream, & a doe with her fawn jumped up from where they were bedded down & hopped across the creek. His face was PRICELESS! He looked at me, pointing to where the deer had gone, back at me, eyes so wide & he was sitting straight up, he let out a squeal of laughter that lit the world at that moment. He was almost impossible to take back indoors that day, he wanted to go back through the trails! So many memories that had me falling more & more in love with this beautiful little boy everyday! The world will be a little darker without his bright spark for this i have no doubt. Until we meet again in heaven little one, my world will be a shade darker. As so many others im sure.
