

Chester Murl Gee

August 24, 1941 - November 26, 2025

Chester Murl Gee was born on August 24, 1941, to Rex and Mable Gee. He passed away on November 26, 2025, in Anderson, Indiana.

Chester proudly served in the United States Air Force for four years, carrying with him the discipline, humor, and determination that would define the rest of his life. A true jack-of-all-trades, he could fix just about anything. Whether he was working on his vehicles, tackling a woodworking project, or finding creative solutions to everyday challenges, Chester approached it all with skill and confidence.

He was known for his ornery streak and the jokes he loved to crack-always keeping those around him laughing. His sense of humor was one of his greatest gifts, bringing lightness and joy to the people he cared for. Chester had a great love for basketball, especially the Indiana Pacers.

Chester also took great pride in his yard. He was particular-some might say meticulous-about how his grass was mowed, and he made sure it was always done just right.

Above all, Chester was a man of heart, grit, and steady presence. His love for family, his playful spirit, and his countless talents will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Chester is survived by daughter, Carrie James of Anderson, IN; daughter, Venus Guerra (Eddie) of Muncie, IN; daughter, Candy Noble; son, Joe Gee (Mary); several grandchildren and great grandchildren, brother, Jack Gee, sister, Judy Bigham, and extended family; and a very special love for Diane Gee.

Chester was preceded in death by son, Dennis Gee, father, Rex Gee, mother, Mable Gee, sister, Mary Jones, brother, James Gee, brother, Kenneth Gee.

There will be a celebration of life held on Saturday, December 13th, 2025 at Pleasant Valley Church, 6994 N CR 1000 W, Middletown, IN 47356 from 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM.
