Thank you for being my sober buddy. Your friendship at such an impactful moment will always mean the world to me. There's so much more that I want to say-- but I will tell it to the stars in hopes that you may hear. I love you forever, my “ From the day we met we knew something was different for us. It was like meeting the voice in my head. We could talk for hours, or say nothing at all and still be enjoying our time together. I knew you were more than just a friend, you were my soulmate, but it took you longer to come around. I promised I would never give up on you and just that reassurance was enough for you to start moving your life back on course. I was proud to watch that beautiful light inside of you come back so you could be yourself again.

I will always love you and only you. I'll see you when I get there, sweetie.
