

Christi G. Holford

February 25, 1974 - September 10, 2024

Christi G. Holford (Dean), "Fuzzy Head", passed away on September 10, 2024, in Indianapolis, Indiana, at the age of 50. Born on February 25, 1974, in Anderson, Indiana.

She was a vibrant soul. Christi's warm spirit and readiness to meet no stranger made her a beloved figure to all that knew her. She loved her family, especially her two nephews, and enjoyed cooking on family nights.

Christi was a 1994 graduate of Pendleton Heights High School and furthered her education at Texas A&M. She embarked on a fulfilling career in nursing, initially becoming a registered nurse in Texas, where she worked at DeTar Hospital in Victoria, Texas. After the loss of her beloved husband, Dean Holford, Christi returned to her home state and took a position at St. John's Hospital. She discovered her true passion in psychiatric nursing and later thrived as a traveling psychiatric nurse, touching many lives with her care and compassion.

She is survived by her parents, Jerry and Phyllis Dean; brothers, Jerry (Erin) Dean and Brad (Amy) Dean; nephews, Alex and Parker; and was preceded in death by her husband, Dean Holford; uncles, Kenneth Kirk; and Michael Lundy; and grandmother, Mamaw Kirk.

Visitation will be held on September 16th from 11 AM to 1 PM at Loose Funeral Homes and Crematory in Anderson, Indiana, where the services will follow at 1 PM. The service will be officiated by Rev. Jed Henson and Rev. Rocky Kirk.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Christi. I worked with her and her friend Angie and her brother Jerry 30 years ago at Richards. She was sweet and hard working, such a nice person and warm memories. Blessings to her and all her family and friends.
