

Clara Paulette Dodd

February 1, 1948 - March 18, 2013

Clara Paulette Dodd "Paulette", raised in beautiful Bloomington Springs, Tennessee and long-term resident of Anderson, Indiana until 2008, when she moved to Prince's Lakes in Nineveh, Indiana, passed away on Monday morning, March 18, 2013, after a nearly two-year-long battle with breast and lung cancer. Paulette was known for her strong work ethic; her common-sense wisdom; her progressive thinking on race, religion, and politics; her compassionate and nurturing spirit; her love of animals; and, her concern for the environment she was fanatical about reusing and recycling, long before it was popular or government-supported. She had sweet country ways, she was an avid reader of fiction, and she loved watching movies. She proudly provided a consistent and caring home for multiple pets during her entire adult life. Paulette was particularly fond of the last several years she spent at her lake cottage on Kinman Drive in Nineveh, Indiana, where she often remarked on the beauty of her lake view from the kitchen window. Paulette is survived by three adult children: Tina Michelle Cox of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Dina Margaret Cox of Trafalgar, Indiana; and, Shane Carlisle Boram of Anderson, Indiana. Although Paulette will be missed dearly, her close family and friends will remain inspired by her positive attitude and valiant fight against cancer, as well as her calm and peaceful decision to allow the battle to end. Visitation will be held at from 12:30pm - 2:30pm on Friday, March 22, 2013 at the Robert D. Loose Funeral Home, 200 West 53rd Street, Anderson, IN 46013. A Graveside service will be held at 2:45pm, Friday, March 22, 2013 at Anderson

Paulette was my cousin. We spent a lot of time together growing up in Bloomington Springs. I loved getting to spend the night with her at Odell and Bob Lee's. I gave up trying to pin down how exactly, but my mama told me we were "double ??? cousins. I'm glad to know that she's happy now, too. -Kathy
