“Mrs. Clara Mitchell was a truly special lady, and I feel so blessed to have known her. I first met her when my grandmother moved into Yorktown Manor, and from the beginning, Mrs. Clara stood out — not just for her bright blonde or vibrant red hair, but for the warmth and kindness she shared with everyone.

She had a beautiful spirit that made people feel welcome and cared for. Her sweet nature, her laughter, and her caring heart left a lasting impression on all who knew her.

I'm so grateful for the time I had with Mrs. Clara. Her memory will continue to bring warmth and smiles to those of us lucky enough to have known her.

I added some pictures I gathered over the years :) I hope that's okay- please feel free to remove if needed.

“ I thought of Clara as my fun aunt. After all, she was a blonde and my youngest aunt. We lived in different states, so we did not see each other often. It was always a special occasion when Clara visited. Clara learned to cook Italian food, and she would delight us with her culinary skills. I especially enjoyed Clara's Italian wedding soup and her gnocchi.
