“ Wish so much that I spent more time with you in my adult years. I love you so much! You were more than just one of my mom's best friends. You were family. You loved me and my brother like we were yours long after my own mother was gone! You took us in when you had zero obligation too at all. Simply because you loved and cared so much. Your heart was so big. I miss hearing stories and laughing with you when I did get to see you! I know for a fact you and my mom are up there getting rowdy together for old time sake! Gone but never forgotten.....
