“ To My Grandma who was the sweetest person in the world- I loved how you had such an amazing way of making each person feel so special and so loved. I marvel at how you were able to keep up those birthday cards over the years-always on time with your signature "XXOO" and "SWAK" on the back. I can still feel your gentle touch-the way you would hold my hand with those petite hands of yours. You were such a feminine woman and a true romantic who smelled of Giorgio Red. I thank you the most for instilling a love for Jesus into my Mother who then instilled this deep faith in us. I told the Lord that He is so blessed to have you as part of His kingdom now. I know that when you entered into His presence, He told you ?well done good and faithful servant? The last time I saw you Grandma, in your pain of losing Jack, and even though you were not feeling well you said ?I just trust in the Lord?. We will all need to trust in the Lord now and always. I love you dearly Grandma. I wish that I could hug you one more time-I remember that you?d always say at our last hug, holding tighter: ? its got to last?. I will feel your love forever.
