“ this will make a total of three times i've signed Cory's memorial book but i just have all of this that i need to say and i found the perfect poem online to do so..... I need to say goodbye although you're with me. I stand beside your grave, yet you are here. I miss you terribly and hope you miss me, But when I turn to you, you're always near. I talk to you as though you lived within me, Not changed but simply moved in from outside. I know each day you must a little leave me, But here, as always, you must be my guide. You were and are and will be, just as ever, In many minds and hearts, not only mine. No physical event can such love sever; Death is a dimension, not a line. And so goodbye does not mean you are gone: So long as I still love you, you live on.

“ Cory- Hey I miss you. The Corner of the student center isnt the same without you there. There is this open space where you once were, and although people might stand in that spot it will never be filled again. Love always, Judy

“ Heavenly Father, Please be with this family at this time. We know the pain when our parents go home to be with you. But to lose a child, to lose two children at once, help these parents father. The only way I know to help is to turn to you and pray for them all. Hear our prayers father. Amen

“ I attended muncie central with Brittany and Cory and although I didnt know either one of them very well I talked to both of them on several ocasions. I probably knew cory better than I knew Brittany though, because he hung out with some of my other friends after lunch. I think i speak for everyone at central who knew them when i say that they will be missed.
