“ Kisha & Brooklyn, I am sorry about your loose. I use to sit next to him at work until I got married, gained a son that is 11, & had a daughter. He would share details of the wedding. He could not wait. He talked about how you guys were going on your honeymoon & he loved when you would call him with a hard day. Brooklyn, he would talk about how when you weren't with him he missed you, how he loved that you were so tuff, & acting. He would tell me about the dog & cat keeping him up at night & make it sound so funny. He loved you, Brooklyn & Kisha, so very much. It seemed like the things in his life was going so good. I remember talking to him about my accident last year, the toys at his desk, & teasing him about Dan George Land for parking way out there. He will be missed! My thoughts & prayers go out to you both & the family.

“ Dan was one of the few who I knew I could always count on to get a smile from. I never knew him to say anything discouraging about anyone. He was a pleasure to work with. He touched more lives in a positive way than he knew. My immediate thoughts and now prayers are for Brooklynne and Keisha.

“ Danny, I am so so very proud of whom you have become and so very proud to be your Mom. You were a son of integrity, character and selfless love and the perfect father to Brookelynnne whom you gave unconditional love. I see so many of your qualities in Brookelynnne. You always thought about others before your own feelings and you lit up the room with your smile. My heart aches that you are not here with us and I miss you very very much, things will never be the same and a piece of me is gone. I want you to know that Brookelynnne and Kisha will be getting lots of love and support and I consider her our daughter. Dave sends his love as well and you were the perfect son to him. Love you forever and always. Mom, Dad and Bruno. I know your looking upon all of us with that big grin on your face.

“ I not only had the priviledge of working with Dan, but more importantly, I had the opportunity to get to know him as a friend. He was the epitome of class. His smile was infectious, and his joy for life was unmatched. His face lit up when he talked about his family. Kisha - you were the love of his life. Brookelynnne - you made your Dad proud in everything that you did. Danjo - you made this world a better place. We all love you and can't wait to see you again in the hereafter. God Bless.

“ Dan was a man of integrity that we should all strive to be. His kind heartedness eclipsed any bitterness that would come out of any situation. We have lost one of God's children that was like a dear brother to me. We helped each other through college and then as we begin our careers. We had a lot of laughs and sometimes a little to much fun. The world is a little darker now with Dan not in it but we will carry on his memory to make it shine brighter in his stead. My only regret in our relationship is the miles that have separated us these past years. To his family my heart and prayers are with you and I rejoice knowing that he is in a better place.
