“ My deepest sympathy goes out to my Uncle Dan's family. I always admired my strapping Uncle who always used to tell us jokes or just kid around with us when we were kids. The family get togethers at Thanksgiving and Christmas have left fond and loving memories of the closeness our families shared. May God comfort the family during this time of loss and may God open wide his arms to my Uncle Dan as he arrives home. May God Bless.

“ Dear Millie, Linda, Jan, Daniel and Lisa: We share our deepest love and sympathies for all of you. I have so many great memories of Dan in Lions Club when he was my secretary. He was so very organized and precise and extremely loyal. He was such a great person and a very good man. Growing up with your family brings us so many wonderful memories and we sincerely have you all in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless you all.
