“ We are very sorry that we could not attend the funeral. So many of the older generation are leaving us. We treasure their memories and all the more embrace those that are still with us. Even though I did not get to know my uncle, I have had a hard time with his passing. We know how hard it was with Martin who was also in the nursing home for a number of years, so we truly believe that Uncle Dan has gone to a better place. May God Bless You All, Dan & Sharona
