“ Dan was a good friend and close neighbor of ours. He was quiet, soft spoken, and would do anything for anyone. His talent and hard working attitude will be greatly missed on our annual miniature golf committee! God will find a special handyman job for Dan in Heaven. May he be blessed in peace. Our thoughts and prayers are with Norma every day.

Love,
Bob and Renee Harreld

“ Danny (backyard neighbor), I enjoyed chatting with you and will miss seeing you.
Thank you for all of the times you shoveled the snow off of our back patio. Thank you for watching over us.

Rest in peace.

“ How I wish I could have hugged him a little tighter, or kept him on the phone a little longer. I didn't know it would be the last time. Life without Danny is going to be a little hard getting used to. He was one of my favorites and I'm heartbroken.

I was so lucky growing up. I had all these great aunts and uncles and then there was Danny thrown in to the mix! He was my 4th uncle as far as I was concerned. He was always offering advice, making inappropriate jokes, I think he taught me to swear, ha! And he could make me laugh harder than anyone else in the family. He was always there with a big smile and hug. So many great memories. He's in the best of company now, that's for sure!

He played it off like he was a tough guy, but we all knew he was a marshmallow that loved his family with his whole heart. When my mom died at 52, he would call me every week or 2 to check in. Or he would talk to Brice, just to see if we were all okay, see if we needed anything. He did this for months. That meant the world to me, that he would take the time out of his day working the way he did, to worry about us. Family meant everything to him.

Norma, Rachelle, Dean, Mia and Gabe, we are so, so sorry for what you are going through. You all were his world. We never had a conversation with him were one or all of you weren't in it. His face would light up anytime he talked about Gabe and football, or rides in the pickup. He was excited about Mia going away to school last we spoke. Family meant everything to him. Danny will be in our hearts always and he will be missed beyond measure. We love you all.

“ There is a hole in our family where you used to stand. There's a hole in my heart for which I never planned. I will miss you every day until we can meet again. Cousin Danny you were full of so much wisdom and I always enjoyed your company when we were around each other. May you forever rest in piece and spend some quality time with all of our loving family up above. Norma, Rachelle and family prayers and condolences to you all and we are so very sorry for your loss - The Lannin Family
