“ Danny was always so much fun!!! I remember about 37 years ago we had a two day party at my bosses house. I got up to get some coffee and the only one up was Danny. He was sitting close to the TV and was wrapped in a blanket watching Gilligan's Island. We laughed about it for a long time. I never saw Danny without a smile on his face. He was truly a genuine person. He will be missed by all who were blessed enough to know him. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. Rest High on that Mountain Danny.
