“ Although I have not seen any of the family for several years, I still have fond memories of growing up on Dayson Drive and spending many hours at the Smith's house. Those were special times and everyone in that neighborhood was family. Every mom treated every kid like their own and Darlene was no different. I remember those times with great joy and am deeply sorry for the loss that the children and grandchildren are now facing. Darlene was a good and decent person who stood out in a time when children needed that kind of a role model. God Bless you all and keep you safe Harold and Deb Pitts
