“ Debbie I am so sorry to hear about Kent and appreciate Kelly calling to let me know. I was just thinking of you folks this past week, thinking about KB and wondering, at that time, about Kent's health. Please know you were always people I enjoyed being around and seeing you walk into the gym. I know Kent struggled with health issues for as long as I have known you guys and you were always right there to support him. We don't know the reasons for these things but each of us needs to be very conscious of the fact that God has each of our days numbered as Psalm 139:16 relates. You both were sacrificial in giving your days to your kids. You can have no regrets in this area. I trust God will help you through this time of great loss and that your children and grandchildren will help fill your hours in the days to come. My best wishes always Tom Britsch
