“ Sometimes it seems we spend more time with people we work with than our own families. So with that being said, I was lucky to have Dave be my co-worker and friend for 24 years at Jims Formal Wear. We made a great team in the shipping department together as he trained me and was my team leader for many years. Dave was very organized and knowledgeable at his job, and of course his handyman skills were so valuable. He leaves me with many memories of things we discussed on a daily basis like music, motorcycles, art, and family. We talked about his love of playing golf and doing woodworking projects a lot too. My wife Kathleen and I have wonderful memories of celebrating Christmas together with Dave and Teri at our annual company parties. I want Dave's family to know our lives are blessed to have had Dave and Teri be our friends. - Ronnie & Kathleen Kelly
