“ To Pam and Family from my family. Our deepest condolences for the loss of Dave. He was a good friend, and a great co-worker in my years at Delphi. We always kept in touch and he was always very helpful and cheerful. I always remember his laughter, and his faith and love for the Lord. May Dave enjoy being in his presence now. God bless our good friend Dave.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Pam and family. I worked with Dave at Delphi in Troy, MI. He will surely be missed...he had many friends here! He had such a kind, caring, and generous nature. We were all better people... just being in Dave's presence! He had a gentle, warm, and compassionate spirit and he always made me laugh! We will miss him! My deepest condolences. May God Bless You. Your family will be in my prayers. Sincerely, Carolyn Webster

“Dave was a gentle giant of a man, very knowledgeable, thorough in his work, but humble. He was the salt of the earth, and those of us who knew him were enriched because of his friendship. God has received a true disciple and one who emulated his Son.”

“Dear Morris Family, I am extremely sorry to hear about Dave?s passing. He and I traveled extensively while he was at the Troy Headquarters. He was always a through gentleman, smiling, soft spoken and willing to help others. I really enjoyed my trips with him and missed him when he moved to Saginaw Steering. My prayers are with you, may God help you all in this time of sorrow and may God rest his soul in peace. He was a nice man. Sincerely, Virender Choudhri”

“I worked with Dave for the past 5 years. He moved to Saginaw just recently so I was able to work with him daily. He was a wonderful man and touched many people. I have not met a nicer man in my life than David Morris. He met my son once and made a big impression on him. He will be truly missed.”

“ Pam, you have my deepest sympathy. David "The Big Guy" was very special to everyone who knew him. He always took the time to help people - no matter what the personal sacrifice. He will be missed terribly. I will never forget his and your friendship. We had great times at lunch eating those White Castle burgers! and with both of you at the house. My prayers are with you and the cats.
