David Lee Rhorer, 77, of Anderson, Indiana, passed away peacefully, to be with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on March 17, 2024, at home surrounded by his family, following an extended illness.

He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He was a man of faith serving his Lord at Kingston Ave. Baptist Church.

He was born in Muncie, Indiana, on October 17, 1946, to Franklin E. and Virginia (Allison) Rhorer.

David attended Alexandria Monroe High School through most of his school years and graduated from Anderson High School in 1964. He served his country in the United States Army and was a member of the 82nd Airborne Division. Later in life, he continued his education by graduating with a BA from Anderson University. David retired in 1990 from the Anderson Police Department, after 21 years of service. After working at Continental Design, Guide and the Anderson University Police Department, he retired again from Madison County Adult Probation Department in 2014.

“ David and I shared driving to and from Ball State University. We took math classes together and studied for tests together. I've often thought of David these several years later having lost track of him. Peace and encouragement to the family. Tom Evans
