

David Martin Surratt

April 13, 1946 - March 10, 2017

David Martin Surratt, 70, of Anderson, passed away on March 10, 2017 at St. Vincent Hospital Indianapolis, IN. He was born on April 13, 1946 in Waukegan, Illinois. While growing up, he spent many summers in the Madison County area visiting family; eventually moving to Anderson where he resided most of his life.

David's outgoing and engaging personality made him known to many during his employment at the Hoyt Wright store downtown. Eventually, he served as the bailiff for a number of years in the Madison Superior Court 1. After a distinguished career as the Assistant Director of the Madison County Community Justice Center, he retired in 2008.

He was involved with the American Cancer Society, American Heart Association, and numerous other community boards and organizations.

Davis is survived by cousins Jeff Martin (Carol), Cindy Miller (Ken), Phil Martin (Julia), Mike Martin Jr., and Jay Martin; and numerous friends and colleagues.

David was preceded in death by his parents, Russell David and Neva Elizabeth (Martin) Surratt.

Cremation will take place.
