“ We are so sorry for your loss Dean was such a wonderful person he is my cousin we spent many family get togethers with Aunt Inez and Uncle John.

Dean took me too my first dance in the 8th grade I had been very ill for the past year and a half I know Uncle John made him go. He was a true gentleman. This was in 1958

Time goes by so fast Dean also worked with my husband Gary Baker at Delco Remy in plant 3 they enjoyed each other.

Gary and I are truly saddened for the family loss. We wanted to come but we are in Florida my sister Shirley and Dale will be there we are sending love and prayers to all. Our deepest condolences

Sharon and Gary Baker
