“ Enjoyed getting to know Diana when I lived at Vermillion Place with my husband before he passed last year. She was so young. It's very sad. 💕💕

I didn't really know Diana until my home health agency sent me to her about 8 years ago. I took her to Indy to be fitted for her prosthetic leg. We spent many hours together after that & I loved her. We'd do lunch & talk about a lot of things. I wish I would of became friends with her many years ago. She was so kind & just a special lady that got the wrong end of the stick. She will be missed by many. 😇😇💕💕
