“ Chris and family, We are so sorry for your loss. I remember her kindness when we were young. I seen her years later and she hadn't changed at all! Chris your mom was beautiful in so many ways. A memory that stands out: I remember watching her on TV in that commercial. She was a star! We think and speak of you often Chris, and we pray for your family. Read your Bible for strength and comfort especially during this time. Prayers and Condolences from all the Ryans.

“ So shocked to read of Dianne's passing. She was a very sweet kind person. I met her growing up when her mother & mine sold "Queens Way To Fashion" clothing. I ran into her again when she was selling kids shoes for Stride-rite, she hadn't changed much at all. So sweet. I am sure she will be so dearly missed. God bless her.

“ There are no words to express how thankful I am to have known Dianne or as we lovingly refer to her here, Gammaw. She was always there for me in such selfless ways; an encouraging smile in the audience at a show, a source of amazing comfort when I was at my lowest points and best memory of all, my "go to" gal when I was a new mom of an infant, preschooler and now high schooler. She gave so much and asked so little in return. She just wanted those of us she loved to be happy. She may not be here to continue to share the big things in our lives but having known her and the part of her that lives through my boys will keep her memory close in my heart. With love and continued prayers for comfort, understanding, and clarity ...
