“ Don will be dearly missed by me, and by everyone he ever knew. I serviced his vehicles and he was one of my great friends, he always helped me with kind words when I was down, and if you ever needed a favor you could always count on Don. He loved his family deeply. He loved to tell stories of his family to me and loved life in general. This comes as a really big shock to me, God bless you Don and God bless your family, I will never forget you friend.

“ Helen & family, Deeply saddened at your loss. Without sorrow, the heart would never learn the meaning of joy. Without tears, our eyes would never see what we hold inside. Without darkness, we would have no reason to look to the light of Heaven. You are in our thoughts and prayers.
