

Donna J Clinard

November 1, 1937 - March 16, 2023

Donna June “Cheify” Davis Clinard was born November 1, 1937, in Anderson, Indiana to Mary and Earl Davis. She grew up in Anderson where she met and married Jerry Max Clinard in 1958.

Donna held a Masters's Degree in Love, she was born to be a mother and nurturer to her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and anyone she met. God knew the world needed her to love and protect many so He lent her to us for a little while, but God took her home on March 16th, 2023 where she is now inheriting the love of God!

She always helped anyone in need, especially family, and was known as “mom, memaw, great memaw, Mother” to many. Donna loved God first and foremost. She enjoyed the simple things like spending time with family, holding babies, playing with her dogs, looking for 4 leaf clovers, peanut butter fudge, maple chocolates, and Lee’s chicken livers, and traveling to Kentucky and other places with her family.

She is survived by her 4 children that she lived her life to love and was loved by:

Grandchildren: Shane, Brian (Anna), Sean(Michelle), Brandy (Jason), Stacia (Nick), Austin (Jenni), Darrien, and Camarie.Great grandchildren-Sydni, Hunter, Payten, Kolten, Ellie, Lilli, Aria, Hazel, Isla, Eva, Rory, Oliver, Emmi, and Reese.Brother- Frank Davis (Becky).Special niece- Helen Steffler

Special nephew- Ernie Hensley (Ellen) And many other family members and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband Jerry, parents Mary and Earl, sisters Betty and Linda, and brother Joe. Our mom will be dearly missed and always loved and remembered!

Every time you eat peanut butter fudge, maples or chicken livers think of Donna Davis Clinard and remember her love was as close to God's love as you could feel here on earth!

We love you, mom!
