“ You were my sunshine Doris. I came to work and your room was the first place I would come to just to say hi beautiful. I miss listening to music with you and having someone to sing with during meals, i miss that grin you would get when you were up to no good or just being fiesty and i just knew you were going to make my evening interesting, and most of all i just miss you. You were so much more than someone i cared for. You were my friend and you and your family will forever be in my heart.
