“ Dear Friends - Some of you may remember me - some may not. I grew up in Decatur, Illinois and West Macon Street/Peoples Church of God. I remember as a young boy attending Lloyd and Dorothy's wedding. They were dear friends of mine and I loved them both. When I went to Anderson University as a student I continued the friendship and watched them develop the Christian Center. They were some of God's choice people. Our families were close friends and I remember Vernon and Ruth well. As a lad I always stood in awe of Vernon when he walked on his hands at Church picnics. You have my deep sympathy on the passing of Dorothy. We all know where she and Lloyd are now and they are enjoying being together in God's presence. I am sure they are renewing acquaintances with my parents Ornan and Gladys Williams. You are in our prayers. God bless you all.
