“ Dear Jeremy, Family and Friends, We are sorry to hear the sad news of Dorothy's passing. She was an exceptional lady who touched every life she came in contact with. It always made me smile to see her in her flower garden taking care of each and every flower. I could only wish my flowers looked as nice as hers. She was one of the sweetest people I have ever met and she will be greatly missed. I want to share a quote with you from a grief support group we attend. Perhaps they are not stars, but openings in heaven, where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us, to let us know they are happy. Unknown So now when you look up at the stars, remember this quote, as Dorothy will be looking down upon you. Christina & Matt Livingston

“ Jeremy, Jane, and Dorothy's family, Bob and I are keeping you in our prayers as you make your way through this time of loss. May your troubled hearts find peace and comfort in the knowledge that you are never alone. May God's preserice ease yur trembling spirit and give you rest. He knows how you feel. He is ever aware of your circumstances and ready to be your stregnth. He is there to cast sunlight into your darkened shadows, to send encouragement through the love of friends and family, and replace your weariness with new hope. God is your stronghold, and with Him as your guide, you need never be afraid. No circumstances can block His love. No grief is too hard for Him to bear. No task is too difficult for Him to complete. When what you are feeling is simply too deep for words and nothing anyone does or says can provide you with the relief you need, God understands. HE is your provider~today~tomorrow~and always. And he loves you. Cast all your cares to HIM~~~ Bob and Teresa

“ For Grams, My Hero... A Week in Heaven J. Travis Sparks She hugs and kisses her loved ones at Heaven's gate, Then shares with them the joy of her new found fate. She goes on and on about the ones she left behind, It's going to take a while, because she was Grams to all mankind. Now God bestows the heavenly rewards upon her head, As always, she shares them with others instead. She now receives the deed to her new heavenly mansion, To make room for all of us, she's already planning the expansion. Heaven's newest garden is now in bloom, She started working on it, as soon as she left that room. Not being able to work in the soil now for some time, I am sure her smile is brighter than summer's sunshine. So Grams wished for all to understand, That God is the key to the eternal land. If you chose Him before it's too late, Grams will meet you at Heaven's gate.
