“ Its been awhile since I've been on here. I know you are all around us all of the time. I miss you more than you can imagine. I think of all the things I would talk to you about if I had one more day. I don't know if I could fit in all in a day. This has been a hard year. I'm not sure I am meant to ever get things right. The kids are blessings though. They are just perfect. You would be crazy about them all. Please watch over us & help me if you could to go in the right direction. I hope your birthday in Heaven is beautiful! I was certainly blessed to have the most amazing mother in the world. Thank you for making me who I am & always taking such good care of me. We love you! xxooxxoo

“ Mom, it has almost been 2 years. Sometimes it feels like yesterday then other times it seems like I haven't seen you in years. I still do not believe you are gone & this is true. I keep hoping it is all a bad dream. Today I watched out my front window & waited for you to come flying down the road & pull in my drive-way. I can't put into words how I feel or how much I miss you & want to see you & hug & kiss you again. No words can explain it. You are still talked about daily & thought about constantly. You are still mentioned everytime Tristan pray's. He still ask's God to make you better. I hope you & God can help me through all of this. Some day's I feel like I can't go on without you. I feel so alone. We love you!! You were the best mom & Maw in the whole world!! I love you mom, Stacy oxoxox

“ It\'s been a year ago today mom. The pain still feels like it happened yesterday but I feel like it has been forever since I talked to you or hugged or kissed you. I miss you so much mom. I just can\'t believe this. I got your song today. Thank you so much for that. I can\'t believe I won\'t have my mom again on this Earth to be with me & watch my kids grow with me. We all miss you & can\'t get used to life without you. You would love the kids so much & be so proud. They are all so special. We love & miss you mom. Until we meet again please always be with us but be free & enjoy Heaven. Love, Stacy, Analiese, Tristan & Luke

“ It's a Boy!! He got to meet his Maw Maw first. We love you & miss you so much. I could tell you were with us at the ultrasound. I knew you wouldn't miss something that neat. You can't ever begin to know how large the hole is in our lives since you have been gone. I cannot believe it will be a year soon. Everyday I wake up I lose you again so it seems like just yesterday when I saw you take your very last breath. To this day I wonder when the nightmare will be over & I will finally wake up. You of all people just can't be gone. I love you forever. "For those who love...time is eternal." I have found where you wrote this different places & it is very true. You had the most beautiful, loving spirit. In the worst of times, you pulled out the positive. You smiled through everything. You were hurt over & over by things but you still loved with all of your heart & gave all of yourself to everyone around you. What I wouldn't give for more time with you. I have pictured in my head everything that we would do. Most of all I would hug you & kiss you & look you straight in the eye's & tell you what a wonderful mother you have always been & how much I dearly love you. And what a wonderful job you did in life & especially taking care of me. You were every grandchild's dream grandma. Dan & I were just talking the other day about what you would think of the kids today. You would just love Tristan & would be taking him fishing this year he is dying to go & you & Annie would be the best of buddies. She would never lack for fun or anything else her heart desired. You would go crazy at her games & wouldn't miss one. How unfair it seems that you didn't even get to make it to one. I don't care if my phone ever rings again or anyone ever comes to my door. It will not be you. I just want to go start over somewhere & find a new normal if that is possible. I can't get passed what happened. I just love you so much. Please be happy & be at peace & don't worry about us. The day will come that you will come for the one's you love & what a joyful day that will be. We love you!!

“ We have all had a visit now & all 3 have said the same thing. Your beautiful face spoke for you. You didn't need to say a word. The kids both said on different occasions that they knew from their dreams that you loved them & missed them & that you were very happy. We love you so much & miss having you. You were & are so special!! Love you!!

“ Tomorrow I may find out if I am having a girl or a boy. I hope you are there with us when we find out. I miss you so much!! I am so very thankful for having such a wonderful mother for 33 years. If I could only keep my mind on how wonderful life was with you instead of how hard & sad it is without you. I love you!! Thank you for your help lately. as usual, I asked & you were there. Annie could even see & feel it. I will see you again someday & then we will never be separated again. I love you mom!!

“ To the family of Dottie; I am truly sorry to hear of your loss, I worked with Dottie at the hospital in the lab. I attended a year of grade school with Stacey in first grade. This is truly a tragedy. Dottie was there when I lost my mom to a battle short lived with cancer in 2001. She offered great support and help in anyway she could. I will offer the same.

“ To the most wonderful mother that ever was!!! I love you and miss you more everyday! I feel you around all of the time and see you out of the corner of my eye. You would be so proud of the kids. You would be so happy to know that I am finally moving on in my life. I know how much of my issues with Dan played a part in your death & you can't imagine how I wish I would have done this yrs ago. I dream about what I would do with 1 more day with you. I have met someone really nice & I know you would love him. Most of all I know you would love him because he loves your grandchildren. That makes him a great guy! I love you mom! Please come & visit me & let me know you are here. Watch over us all! oxoxoxox from all of us! Love, Stace

“ Spring is here and you are in my mind even more then you were before & it's hard to believe that is even possible. I can picture exactly what we would be doing and how we would spend our days. We all miss you terribly. I know you have a beautiful life now free of all troubles and burdens. But I guess selfishly I want you here to be with me and your grandbabies. You would love Luke to pieces. I can see you tearing him up and making him rotten. Annie & Tristan still talk about you all the time and I don't think that will ever change. That is the kind of impact you had on people's lives. I love you mom!!! For infinite!!! My heart hurts without you. I have so many things to be thankful for including having you for the years I did. I still miss you terribly though. Love you Mom, Stace oxoxoxox
