“ I did not learn of Duane’s death till at least a year after he died. I hope family will see this note. I only know his son, Don, and his mother Billie.

I have good memories of Duane. He was always very, very nice to me.

One thing I know. He loved Don very, very much. He was so proud of him.

That’s what he talked about with me.

He also played guitar and sang.

He sang at our Anderson store. Really great voice.

I remember one of his favorite songs was a George Strait song about father and son.

Don loved this song.

I am very sorry about Duane’s early death.

I pray for the family to be comforted.

I miss him.

I also miss seeing you, Don.

Felt I watched you growing up.

You look so much like your dad.

There are no words that can take away pain.

But just know you are all in my prayers.

When we don’t know what to pray, the Holy Spirit speaks for us.
