“ Never a dull moment around Dustin when we poured concrete, had a big future ahead of him. He loved Beau and company and always looked up to him. Every time I spoke with Dustin he made sure I knew how proud he was of his girls. Rest easy little buddy, pour those drives up there and get them ready for Beau and all of us to inspect!!!!

Honestly Dusty didn't have much bad to say. He was trying to figure this out . Hard work. Time with his beauties and wind therapy. I'm so thankful for the time I got to see him shine in this world Till we meet again.

I didn't know Dustin long, he did concrete work for me, he truly seemed to be trying to figure life out and he was making great strides to do that for his girls he often talked about so proud of. I was saddened to hear of his passing, my thoughts and prayers are with his family.
