

Dyanna Pearson

August 30, 1948 - June 17, 2012

Dyanna Pearson, 63, of Indianapolis died on Sunday, June 17, 2012 of heart failure. She was born August 30, 1948 in San Angelo, Texas. Her family eventually settled in Coloma, Mich. She was crowned Miss Coloma in 1966 and she graduated from Coloma High School. She earned a bachelor's degree in education from Michigan State University, and later received her master's degree in speech and language pathology from Andrews University. She enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, knitting, and skinny-dipping. She was married to David Elliott for 26 years and is survived by three daughters, Amy Shultz of Whitestown, Ind., and Stephanie Perez and Meghan Elliott of San Francisco, Calif. She was blessed with five grandchildren, Anna Shultz, Jeremiah Shultz, Jacob Shultz, Fedlaine Shultz and Cole Pepper. She was looking forward to meeting her newest twin granddaughters, Sofia and Eliana Perez, due in October. She has two surviving siblings, Evelyn Seekamp of Portage, Mich. and Douglas Pearson of Dowagiac, Mich. Dyanna's parents, Donald and Helen Pearson, preceded her in death. Dyanna's family will celebrate her life in a memorial service at 3 p.m. Sunday, June 24th at the family cottage on Dewey Lake at 31682 Sunrise Avenue, Dowagiac, MI 49047. Memorials may be made in Dyanna's memory to Harvest Community Christian Church, P.O. Box 33, Whitestown, IN 46075.

Tribute Wall

TF

“ We cherish and miss Dyanna's grand friendship over many years, her tinkling laughter, and sunny outlook on life. There are no others like her. Rest in peace, Dyanna

Tom Gard and Family - June 24, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ We are saddened by Dyanna's passing and remember her as a kind, warm, wonderful Mother for our Daughter-in-law, Meghan. We will be at the service to honor her life and share the grief of those remembering her life. Jean & John Henderson

Jean & John Henderson - June 23, 2012 at 12:00 AM